MAX MONTOR FEATURED IN DRAMATIC OFFERINGS

German Artist Gives Impersonations;
Under Auspices of Carl Schurz
Foundation

LARGE AUDIENCE PRESENT

A program of dramatic representations was rendered last Wednesday night in Bomberger Hall by Max Montor, internationally known actor and dramatist. A large audience received Mr. Montor's selections appreciatively. His opening presentation was "The Assassination of Caesar" from Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar." In this he portrayed the assassination of the emperor and delivered Mark Antony's famous oration in a gripping, dramatic style which held the audience spellbound.

The "Rialto speech" from Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice" was delivered by Mr. Montor in the famous character of Shylock. The selection consists of Shylock's fiery outburst of hatred and vengeance when his bitter enemy, Antonio, comes to borrow money from him. The speech was given in a constant crescendo of swelling anger which boiled up from the depths of the Jew's heart, leaving him at the climax speechless with rage.

SCHAFF PLAY CAST PICKED

"The Black Flamingo" to be Presented December 3

On Tuesday, November 1 an open reading of the annual Schaff play was held in Bomberger by members of the Curtain Club. Since nearly all members were present at the time, try-outs for the 13 parts were then held, and consequently the cast was picked.

The play, "The Black Flamingo" by Sam Janney, is a thrilling French mystery of the old revolutionary days. All scenes take place in the "Black Flamingo Inn," where comedy and tragedy alike lurk—to say nothing of the pretty romance which weaves itself amid the mysterious background.

The coaches, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald S. Sibbald, seem very appropriate, since both have a thorough knowledge of French life, language, and customs from extensive travels in France. The newly-chosen cast will begin practice at once on the play in order to have it in perfect readiness by Friday, December 2, the date set aside for its presentation to the public.

The cast is as follows:
Felipe Bodier . . . Charles Kraft, '33
Nicole Bodier . . . Margaret Deger, '33
Clotilde . . . Louella Mullins, '33
Bourienne . . . Floyd Heller, '33
Trigand . . . Clair Hubert, '33
Francoise de Lussac Walter Welsh, '33
Eugene de Lussac. Craig Johnson, '35
Diana . . . Dorothy Patterson, '35
Charlotte . . . Dolores Quay, '34
Cagliastro . . . Charles Gompert, '33
Popo . . . Anthony Ziccardi, '33
Gavronde . . . Alfred Creager, '33
Bossange . . . Elmer Morris, '33

THE ZIMMER HARP TRIO

ZIMMER HARP TRIO WILL BE HEARD IN RECITAL

Well Known Group to be Assisted by Harry Newcombe in Concert
Friday Evening

THIRD OF CULTURE SERIES

The Zimmer Harp Trio, one of America's foremost musical companies, will present a recital at Ursinus on Friday evening, November 11 at 8.00 p. m. The concert will be staged in Bomberger Hall.

The Zimmer Harp Trio is the oldest trio of its kind in America and has given more recitals on that instrument than any other representative group in this country. Each season, for the past thirteen years, it has returned to Boston, Washington, Cleveland, and other prominent cities. It has appeared in numerous colleges throughout the east, south, and middle west.

Comprising the trio are Nellie Zimmer, soloist and founder of the organization; Marie Mellman, and Louise Harris, harpists. Harry Newcombe, dramatic baritone who during the past season was soloist with the Boston Symphony Orchestra, will sing on the program.

Miss Zimmer, a native of New York State, was a pupil in America under Van Vechtan Rogers, prominent harpist and harp composer, and a pupil in Paris under Mlle. Henrietta Renie, famous French harpist, teacher, and composer. Miss Zimmer now conducts a Summer Harp School at Mendon, Mass., and has for more than thirteen years been appearing before American audiences. Misses Mellman and Harris also are former Roger's students.

Probably no program of the radio world has been more popular than the Zimmer Harp Trio. In illustrating and describing better radio programs, the Saturday Evening Post (February 26, 1927) chose the Zimmer Harp Trio as a representative example of real artists.

MEN'S STUDENT COUNCIL DISCUSS CONFERENCE PLANS

A discussion as to whether or not Ursinus will be represented at the National Convention of College Student Councils, to be held at Tulane University, New Orleans, Louisiana from December 28 to 31, occupied the spotlight at the meeting of the Men's Student Council meeting on Friday, November 4. It was finally decided to look further into the necessary expenses before a definite decision is reached.

The council wishes to announce that a decision was reached at the meeting to the effect that all freshman regulations will be enforced very strictly. The discussion on this point was very heated, and there was no doubt in the minds of any council members as to the course they will take. The freshman class is asked to note this action and is advised to act accordingly.

After some discussion, it was decided to award watch charms to the senior members of the Student Council. Further details of this matter will be worked out and announced later. The Council further agreed to give out the caps which have been purchased for the band.

URSINUS DEBATING LEAGUE TO CONVENE THIS SATURDAY

Forensic Conference to Decide Upon Topic for Controversies Between
Members of the League
APPROX. 250 EXPECTED

The 13th annual conference of the Ursinus College Inter-Scholastic Debating League, of which Prof. Witmer is the president, will be held at Ursinus next Saturday morning and afternoon, November 12. It is expected that about 250 representatives of about 50 high schools will be present for the conference.

The chief item of business to be attended to by the group will be the choosing of the question to be debated by the member teams. There will be special music furnished by a nearby high school glee club.

During the conference there will be addresses by Miss Mabel E. Mullock, head of the English department of the Allentown Senior High School, Mr. Lawrence W. Phipps, debating coach at the John Harris High School, Harrisburg, and Mr. Paul H. Grim, coach of debaters at Oxford High School, Oxford, Pa.

Prof. Witmer expects representatives of the students and faculties of most of the member schools to be on the campus for this meeting. It is an annual affair which does much to create interest in forensic work in high schools and improve technique among the debaters.

Novel "Hobo Hop" Presents Ken Nichols and his Orchestra

With thoughts of Hallowe'en still in the air many attended the "Hobo Hop" Saturday night, November 5.

The gym was decorated in keeping with the season. Corn stalks and pumpkins were arranged along the sides of the walls which were covered with silhouettes of cats, bats, and ghosts. With this as a background the Ursinusites, in costumes varying from the sedate maid of nineteen hundred to the modern young miss, danced to the excellent music rendered by Ken Nichols and his orchestra direct from Sleepy Hollow Inn, West Chester.

The prizes for the most original couple were awarded to Walter Welsh '33 and Jeanette Baker '33, respectively Mr. and Mrs. Zilch. Mention must also be made of Mr. Rhea Wheatly '33 and Miss Phil Citta '33.

The chaperones for the evening were Dr. and Mrs. Marcus C. Old and Prof. and Mrs. Maurice O. Bone. The committee which made possible this successful evening was comprised of: Rhea Wheatly '33, Mary Brendle '33, Helene Gohs '33, Phil Citta '33, Jerry Smeigh '33, Joe Diehl '33, and Jack Robbins '33.

TEA SERVED AT SHREINER

The girls of Shreiner Hall, their parents, and a number of alumnae were entertained at tea by the Dean of Women after the Drexel game on Saturday.

The Shreiner reception room was tastefully decorated for the occasion with candles and fall flowers. The Women's Dormitory Committee served the refreshments.

FROSH TIE DRAGONS, 6-6 AFTER CLOSE FIGHT

The Drexel and Ursinus freshmen teams battled to a 6-6 tie on Saturday in their annual football game. The Ursinus Cubs outplayed their opponent, but lacked the necessary punch to score on several occasions.

Drexel scored in the second quarter when Stephen snared a pass over the goal line thrown by Bob Schulze, brother of Bob Schulze, in the last period, a series of completed forward passes and a beautiful end run by Fred Schulze, brother of Bob Schulze on the opposing team, brought the ball to the 5 yard marker, where Calvert plunged through for the score.

Both teams played good football, and several corking plays were executed. Grenwalt, left end for Ursinus, caught several beautiful passes, and was a bulwark on the defense. Lewis playing at tackle performed nobly, on three consecutive plays tossing the opposition for losses. The backfield clicked in a rather convincing fashion, the hard running of Bassman and

Girls' Hockey Team Loses to Swarthmore Sticksters

The Ursinus girls met the strong Swarthmore hockey team on the latter's field on Wednesday, November 2. After a fast hard game in which Ursinus exhibited superb defensive playing the bear co-eds were compelled to accept defeat by a 3-0 score. In consideration of the fact that most of the Swarthmore girls have had individual training under expert foreign coaches at hockey camps the visitors may be complimented on the fine fight and close game.

The contest opened with both teams playing hard hockey, the ball consequently being kept between the twenty-five yard lines. However by the middle of the half sustained drives down the field on the part of the garnet's forward line finally netted a goal, but only after the ball had been hit repeatedly from dangerous scoring positions by members of the Ursinus defense. In these plays and throughout the game Rhea Wheatley, senior goal keeper, time and again averted score by well placed hits.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES COUNCIL DISCUSSES FUTURE PLANS

Several social engagements were definitely decided upon by the Council on Social Activities at a meeting held last Tuesday evening.

Probably the most important affair scheduled is the Pan-Hellenic Ball which will be held December 3. The "Blue Moon" orchestra from York, which attained great popularity at the Lorelei Dance last year, will furnish the music for the occasion.

The presentation of the Schaff play will be on December 2. The play which is entitled, "The Black Flamingo" will be presented by the Curtain Club.

Another engagement interesting particularly to the sophomores is the Soph Hop on January 3. Until last year, when the "sophs" had charge of the dance, the dance was given annually under the title of "The Montgomery County Dance." The sophomore class will announce committees for the dance at a later date.

FACULTY CLUB MEETS AT DR. BARNARD'S

The first of the usual winter series of faculty club meetings was held at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Barnard, Friday evening, October 28.

Professor Witmer gave a paper on the sonnet—its construction and use, and read a collection of original poems, most of which were sonnets.

A fighting Ursinus bear, smarting under a 7-2 defeat and seeking revenge for a 12-7 reverse by Drexel last year, rose up in a fury at Patterson field on Saturday afternoon to completely overwhelm a hitherto undefeated Drexel team.

The 28-6 score is no indication of the one-sidedness of the game. The fire from the Dragon proved to be just so much hot air. Boasting of a "line which has outplayed every line they have met this season," the minions from the Quaker city presented a tissue paper appearance throughout the greater part of the game.

The rout leaves no shadow of doubt in the minds of the public concerning the strength of the two teams. It was sweet revenge for the unexpected reverse suffered last year, following which the engineers declared a holiday and amid pep meetings and banquets claimed the "championship" of the small colleges in the east.

Drexel Outclassed

Playing like a well oiled machine, the Bears crossed the goal stripe no less than four times and that often the oval sailed between the uprights for the extra point. The Grizzlies tallied in each of the first two periods and succeeded in scoring two more in the final frame.

Only once did Drexel break into the scoring column. Catching the Bears off guard, the latter discovered themselves backed against the goal line for the first and last time.

Captain Swede Paul was forced to watch the game from the sidelines because of injuries, but saw his place capably filled by Roy Johnson, who played fine ball.

O'Donnell Scores

The first touchdown came soon after the opening whistle. Drexel received the kick-off and, failing to gain,

TRACK MEN TO COMPETE IN CONFERENCE MEET

Will Attempt to Clinch Championship
For Permanent Possession of Trophy

With a stay of two weeks from competition, the Ursinus hill-and-dalers will resume their broken-up schedule at Carlisle on Saturday, November 12th. The occasion will be the annual Conference meet. The Bear runners, who won the team honors a year ago, will be defending champions. A win for the Ursinus harriers this time will mean permanent possession of the trophy, Ursinus having already won team honors two of the required three times. However, the position of F. and M. and Dickinson is precisely the same. There is no doubt that each team will put up a hard fight.

Under the guidance of Coach Stanley Omwake the squad is rounding into fine shape. The team appears better balanced than earlier in the season. The squad has been especially strengthened by the return of "Pope"

THIS ELECTION BLARNEY

Tomorrow is not the first Tuesday of the month, but it is the first Tuesday after the first Monday. As the staid old "forefathers" so designated, tomorrow will be the climax of the presidential fight which is staged every four years. The "fight" theoretically is supposed to be a gentlemen's scrap, but this year as on every previous similar occasion the contest has degenerated to a mud-slinging, dirt-throwing campaign. Each party accuses the other of living in a glass house, but nevertheless it appears that the bay windows of all the parties are pretty well cracked.

About this time the various party bosses will be trying to see that these "glass enclosures" just mentioned of the individual voter will be filled with food or what have you in order to commandeer a few extra votes. Practices such as this have been resorted to since time immemorial inasmuch as the man who places his physical and temporal needs above his reasoning ability will fall prey to such unscrupulous dealings. This year more than ever a good meal will win a vote since there are many people who are really in want. A condition such as this is deplorable because the steadfast "party workers" will surely take advantage of the situation.

As far as the platforms of the two major parties are concerned, there is some little difference, but fundamentally the American government will remain the same. After listening to the recent speeches by the major candidates and other representatives of the two parties one would think that the country would be practically dissolved no matter who frequents the illustrious White House. Each party claims the gyroscopic ability of putting the country on an even keel, and in both cases it looks as though the platform ships will not hold water after either party gains its political prestige.

The straw vote taken on the campus, we believe, is not indicative of the general election returns as the situation at the present time seems to forecast a close fought battle between the two leading candidates. Only after tomorrow's election will the country's choice be known.

"ONE DOLLAR AND A HALF IS TOO MUCH"

The following few sentiments have been held in mind during the whole football season, but until now have not been expressed. That dollar and fifty cents general admission to football games is entirely too much.

It is not our purpose to attack or find fault with the athletic department. What we do want to do is to reflect a sentiment held by many alumni, friends, and students of the College.

Ursinus is a small college and is away from large cities. The people who travel here to see the Bears in action are for the most part loyal alumni and friends. Why burden them? Those who wish to see just a football game will go to Franklin Field where they can get a reserved seat for $1.10. Other colleges have reduced their admission fee to "depression prices."

No college can get very far without the good will of the people. Nothing engenders more ill-will than that obnoxious dollar and a half. The majority of the local people can not attend the games because of the prohibitive price.

Not only in the vicinity of Collegeville but in other sections is this noticeable. Friends and supporters of our rival teams drive to Collegeville, bringing their wives, children, and friends, only to find that they must part with too much money to get on the other side of the wooden paling. They would not object to $1.10, but any greater sum looks like a fortune.

Whether or not they pay it is another matter, but it leaves a decidedly bad taste in their mouths to be charged more than their alma mater itself demands. "The way to a man's heart is through his pocketbook." We must develop good feeling, for it is a valuable advertiser and will do much to put Ursinus on the map.

The athletic council no doubt has reasons for charging this exorbitant sum. "The budget must be met," says the athletic council. All right, nothing can be done about it this year. Why can not the proper arrangements be made for the next season? It will involve certain adjustments, but nothing should be sacrificed at the expense of good will.

A. C. A. '33.

LET'S GO, DEBATERS!

The Men's Debating Club is meeting tonight for its first regular program. This will inaugurate the forensic season. Ursinus has always been noted for her strong teams. It is not so much to the upperclassmen as to the freshmen that this is directed.

The Inter-collegiate Debating Conference has selected an interesting question, one which will receive much comment within the next few months, that of cancelling the war debts. Work is to be begun on this subject immediately. Freshmen, as well as other students are eligible to positions on the team. No better experience can be gained than through active participation in debating.

The club is anxious to have a large number of first year men try out for the team. Selection of the personnel will not be made until a later date and the meetings will be devoted to discussion of the questions. Remember, eligibility to Tau Kappa Alpha, national honorary forensic fraternity, awaits the successful person who has met certain requirements.

Let this be your personal invitation to come out for debating. The time and meeting place will be announced. Let's go, you potential Websters and Lincolns!

A. C. A. '33.

GAFF from the GRIZZLY

Don't worry, Flinchbaugh, you'll be a big man like Cocker some day, and then you can buy anything you want.

From current murmurings of the International Law class, maybe Skip had better follow Mr. Carter's example and run down to Clark until the effects of his exam blow over.

Miss Lootz is present.

Messrs. Little and Shear hereby petition the Grounds Committee to put lights on all trees on or about the middle of East Campus. There have been too many bumped heads on late trips to the Commercialery.

The guy that wrote "Thirteen Men and a Woman" was a piker. He should have been at the smoker Thursday.

By the way, the best bout of the evening didn't come off. It is rumored that Deibler lost to Benjamin by default.

CO-EDS FEATURE HALLOWE'EN PARTY IN FIELD CAGE

Little or no space for spirits was left in the "gym" on Hallowe'en, when the Ursinus co-eds gathered there as the guests of the Women's Student Council for a masquerade. The "gym" was appropriately decorated with corn shocks, pumpkins and witches.

The program began with a grand march in which could be found representatives of many nations, story book favorites, colonial dames and sires, and folks of all descriptions. The march gave the judges an opportunity to choose the winners of prizes. The lucky ones were: for the funniest costumes, Rena Grim '33 as a jolly, fat Chinaman and Heradah New-some '35 as a "poor 'little dirl wif measles." Helen Lewis '34 in a costume such as the ladies of the 1900's wore took the prize for being the most original while Violet Wintersteen '34 dressed as a Spanish lady was adjudged the prettiest.

Games and dancing were engaged in for a large part of the evening. There was also a short stage entertainment. Eleanor Lyle '35 sang some "blues" songs, Mary Myers '34 did a tap dance, and Daisy Lytle '36 sang several numbers. All were accompanied by Gladys Ulrich '33.

Cider, ginger cookies, pretzels, doughnuts and apples disappeared soon after they were brought in. Shortly afterwards, the guests departed declaring the party a huge success and the work of the committees very fine.

The judges and chaperones were: Dr. White, Mrs. Rauch, Mrs. Isenberg, Miss Snell and Miss Walker.

RESULTS OF Y. W. C. A. BALLOT POINT TO HOOVER'S ELECTION

The Grand Finale of the political rally, carried on by the Y. W. C. A., for the past five weeks, took place on Friday, November 4th.

In room 7, from 1.00 to 5.00 p. m., the co-eds of the College marked "X" opposite their choice for the presidential candidate.

The results of the election made more conclusive a victory for Hoover, as far as Ursinus is concerned. Of the three principal candidates, there were thirty-one votes cast for Hoover, eleven for Roosevelt, and seven for the Socialist candidate, Norman Thomas.

Through this political rally the girls who attended the Y. W. meeting acquired a much better knowledge of the situation in political circles, mainly through the speeches and discussions led by Professor Carter, advisor for the Democrats; Dr. Barnard, Republican leader; and Mrs. Carter, Socialist exponent.

VARSITY CLUB CONVENES

The College Varsity Club held its first meeting of the year last Monday at 12.30 in Bomberger. The meeting was called to order by Joseph Diehl, '33, president of the club.

The discussion centered on the question of compensating those editing the football programs. Two suggestions were offered: that they be given a certain percentage of the net profits or that they be given that which remained from the advertisements after printing expenses were paid. No definite action was taken.

The president stated that cards of membership were being printed which would be given to each member as soon as his dues were paid.

The Tower Window

FOR a long time agencies and individuals in the field of education have been engaged in the consideration of problems incident to college entrance. Of the importance of these investigations and discussions there can be no doubt, but we have come upon a time when a problem has presented itself at the other end of the college course that is of greater importance, and to which educational and sociological experts should address themselves with promptness and vigor.

The great question of the day is: How shall America make use of the thousands of educated young persons who are being graduated year by year from our institutions of higher learning? The reactions in society by which millions of people have been thrown out of employment have presented especially hard and discouraging conditions for persons at the threshold of life, fitted for high service, earnest, ambitious and ready—yet without openings suited to their qualifications. From the graduating classes of 1930, 1931 and 1932 there are thousands of college men and women still waiting for something to do.

From comparisons which we have been able to make, there are fewer unemployed among the graduates of Ursinus than among the alumni of colleges in general, yet it is a fact that some of our brightest and most promising graduates of recent years have been seeking thus far in vain for steady and suitable employment.

Until the constructive agencies of society in general get this problem solved, I think we of the Ursinus household—faculty, alumni and friends, should constitute ourselves a nation-wide bureau for the locating of Ursinus graduates. Education of the type gotten at Ursinus fits one for a wide range of service, and in addition we have those who are especially trained for teaching, physical education, recreational activities, laboratory work, social service, and a variety of business positions. If Ursinus people will work for Ursinus graduates, and whenever there is an opening of any kind in the home community, will write to the college describing the position to be filled, we here at headquarters will try to help some one of our graduates get the job.

Meanwhile, will alumni who are unemployed inform us of their availability.

MOD. LANG. GROUP MEETS

A meeting of the Modern Language Group was held last Tuesday at 12:30 o'clock in Bomberger. Audrey Unruh, '33, the president of the group, was in charge. A new secretary-treasurer, Leila Amole, '35, was elected.

Plans were discussed for the first evening group meeting which will probably be held November 14. A program committee, composed of Audrey Unruh, '33, chairman; Ruth Hamma, '35, and Margaret Wanderer, '35, was appointed. The refreshment committee includes Mary Myers, '34, chairman; Helen Lewis, '34, and Helene Myers, '35.

The possibility of having monthly meetings, devoted in turn to French, Spanish, and German subjects was suggested. Action upon this matter will probably be taken at the next meeting.

Y. W. C. A. C. A. C. A. C.

The Y. W. C. A. of the College held a "U" discussion group in Bomberger Hall on Wednesday night. This type of discussion was an experiment representing a round table discussion. It proved very successful by bringing a lively response from the student body.

Miss Marion Hageman '34 led the meeting. The topic of the discussion for the meeting concerned the types of Democratic, Republican, and Socialistic Governments. Miss Hageman introduced Dr. Barnard, Prof. Boswell, and Mr. Miller '33 who explained and discussed the Republican, Democratic, and Socialistic systems respectively. The main points of the talks concerned prohibition, the depression, and tariff.

With previous political knowledge gleaned from former meetings and with this additional material the students present were able to conduct a very interesting discussion.

THE MAIL BOX

To the Editor of the Weekly:

In your editorial column, a few weeks ago, it was suggested that girls be added to the cheer leading staff in an effort to increase its efficiency at football games.

In a co-educational college, there are many extra-curricular activities in which both men and women participate as a unit, but there is a definite barrier in the department of athletics. There are sports for men, and for women, but to my mind it is a very serious mistake for the women to attempt to imitate the activities of the men, not only in the various sports, but in their conduct as well.

With this in mind, I think that it would be very much out of place to have girl cheer leaders at Ursinus. It would not only lower the prestige, now enjoyed by the co-eds in all of their activities on the campus, but would be an admission on the part of the men that they were unable to properly conduct this important adjunct to our athletic events.

Female cheer leaders may have their place in the high school, but most certainly, not in the college. Football is a man's game and should be conducted by men. Let the girls have their own cheer leaders for their games, but alack the day when a male will lead cheers at a hockey game and a female stands on Patterson Field to lead the demonstrations incidental to a football game. Picture, if you can what an opinion opponents and visitors would gather should they be greeted by the sight of girl leaders at our games. Would such a spectacle impress a red-blooded youth in selecting a college in the future? Decidedly not! This is in no way a reflection on the support and loyalty of our co-eds. They are, and always have been 100 percent supporters of the teams, but let them continue in their contribution to the athletic morale in their own inimitable manner.

Therefore, until such time as our great college sport has deteriorated to "touch" football, with pink tea served between the halves to the strains of a dreamy orchestra; when the water bucket has been replaced by a sandwich tray; when the sponge of cooling draughts has been superseded by the powder puff; when the gymnasium has been converted into lounging rooms, and varsity letters are awarded for prowess as a gigolo; then, and only until then, may a virile, fighting Grizzly Bear, not a Teddy Bear, stalk in all his majesty across the athletic firmament of Ursinus.

R. C. Johnson.

GLEE CLUB SCHEDULED FOR TWO CONCERTS THIS WEEK

Approximately thirty members of the Glee Club are turning out every noon for practice, also every Tuesday evening. Interest runs high, and there is much promising talent. New numbers are being rehearsed under the tutelage of Miss Hartenstine in preparation for scheduled concerts.

The club will perform in the auditorium of the Phoenixville High School at 3:00 p. m., on the afternoon of November 9. Another program will be offered on Thursday evening, 8:00 p. m., at Royersford.

Other recitals are being arranged and notice as to the time and place will be given in the near future.

INTER-SORORITY COUNCIL DISCUSSES RUSHING RULES

A meeting of the Inter-sorority Council was held last Monday afternoon in the seminar room of the library. The meeting which was in charge of Gladys Ulrich '33, president of the group, was primarily for the purpose of discussing rules for "rushing." Questions concerning the rules were cleared after which it was decided that a list of these rules in full should be published in a future Weekly.

Y. W. C. A. CABINET MEETING

The Y. W. C. A. cabinet held its regular meeting on Thursday morning at 7:30 in room 7, Bomberger. Coreta Nagle '33 reported rapid progress in fixing up the old day-study in the library which has been granted to the cabinet. A blank was dictated by the president of the organization, Helen Van Seiver '33, to be filled out by every member of the cabinet and turned in as soon as possible.

Several announcements were made among which was the calling of a special meeting for this Thursday morning at the same time.

ALUMNI NOTES

'12—Charles Lewis Maurer, Ed. D., Dean of the College of South Jersey is the author of "Early Lutheran Education in Pennsylvania," which has recently come from the press of Dorrance and Co., Philadelphia. The work is a complete history of education as carried forward by the parochial schools of the Lutheran churches during the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries before the establishment of the public school system. Dr. Maurer has gleaned much information on this interesting subject from original records. The work has also appeared in the latest volume of The Pennsylvania German Society.

'21—Rev. George P. Kehl has transferred from the Reformed Church at Indianapolis, Indiana to the Reformed Church at St. Marys, Ohio. His present address is 429 W. High St., St. Marys, Ohio.

'26—Catherine Shipe, a member of the faculty of Southern Junior High School, Reading, Penna., has been given the part of "Helen, a movie struck wife," in the "Nut Farm," a play to be presented by the school faculty, November 15 and 17. Miss Shipe is also the director of the play, proceeds of which will be devoted to needy children of the school.

'27—Adelaide Hathaway, health-director of Cumberland Hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., was a visitor to the campus over the week-end.

The congregation of St. John's Reformed Church, Red Lion, Pa., celebrated its 50th anniversary on October 14-16. Rev. Oliver K. Maurer is pastor.

Among the visitors seen on the campus over the week-end were: Bertha Weaver Hoagland '27, Dorothy Seitz '29, Ethel Shellenberger '30, and Margaret Smith '30.

W. S. G. A. CONVENES

The regular weekly meeting of the Women's Student Council was held last Monday noon at 12:30 with Rena Grim, president, in charge. There was very little business to bring before the group. Bills for current expenses were ordered paid, and final plans for the Hallowe'en party were discussed.

Thrifty College Men
TELEPHONE HOME at HALF PAST EIGHT!

IT'S not only thrifty—it's good common sense to telephone home after 8:30 P. M.

The folks are at home—your time is free—it's just the time for a family "get-together."

Best of all, at 8:30 P. M. low Night Rates go into effect on Station to Station calls. Call home tonight and take advantage of the saving. A Station to Station call is for a telephone—not for a specific person. You just give the operator your home telephone number and hold the line.

It will be a thrill you'll want to repeat. So make a "date" to call again next week. Charges, of course, can always be reversed.

ASSISTANTS FOR 1934 RUBY

Bennett and Cunningham Appointed As Aides to Sutin and Wharton

The 1934 Ruby is slowly evolving from the state of abstraction on the path to realization. Sutin and Wharton, the recently elected editor and business manager, respectively, have already named their first assistants. The remainder of the organization has not been chosen as yet. In fact, no other definite appointments to the staff are expected to be announced before the next semester.

Robert E. Bennett will be the assistant to the editor. Bennett, whose home is in Kingston, Pa., is in the Chem-Bi group. He is prominent in varied forms of campus life inasmuch as he is vice-president of the Y. M. C. A., and a representative of the junior class on the student council. In the realm of athletics, football is his forte, having been regular center on the varsity team for the past two seasons.

Robert H. Cunningham will be the associate to Wharton in the business managership of the year book. Cunningham is from Patterson, N. J., where he attended Eastside High School. At Ursinus, he is enrolled in the Business Administration Group, majoring in economics. He has been active in affairs of his class, serving in various offices and committees. At present, he is junior manager of the football squad.

TRACK MEN TO COMPETE

IN CONFERENCE MEET

Gregory to the lineup. Gregory, a veteran of two seasons, was forced to report late because of illness.

Judging from the results in earlier meets this season, Capt. Sautter and Sutin should be important unitary factors in keeping the team score low. Sutin was individual winner in last year's Conference run. McLaughlin and Williams, freshmen, have thus far proved themselves the finds among the new candidates. Much is expected from them on Saturday.

Hepner and Shollenberger, newcomers to the squad this year, have shown much improvement in recent practices and may demonstrate some surprising performances in the near future.

MAX MONTOR FEATURED

from Lessing's "Nathan der Weise" was a sermon on tolerance and unselfishness delivered by an aged Jew, Nathan, when asked which was the greatest of religions. He compared Christianity, Judaism and Mohammedanism to three sons seeking favor from a father who realizes that to favor one would be to offend the other two, thus emphasizing the value of tolerance.

Two scenes from Goethe's "Faust," vividly and graphically presented, brought the program to a close. They were given in German. Throughout the entire recital Mr. Montor displayed a powerful voice, a fine dramatic style, and an emotional versatility ranging from comedy to starkest tragedy. The program was presented under the auspices of the Carl Schurz Memorial Foundation, of Philadelphia.

ALUMNI NOTES

'25—Mr. E. C. Herber and family made a trip to Crested Butte, Colorado, last summer. Mr. Herber pursued courses in Parasitology and Field Botany. This is Mr. Herber's fourth year as a member of the faculty at Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.

"Ba Thane," Play of India

"Ba-thane," a play concerning India, will be presented by a group of young men and women of the College at the Y. W.-Y. M. C. A. joint meeting, next Wednesday night, November 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheeder are the coaches of this play. The production has as its purpose the portrayal of the effective work done by Christian missionaries in India, and will prove very interesting.

The story shows how Mr. and Mrs. Worth, missionaries from America, aid Ba-thane in securing some education. Mr. Fox, an American oil driller, seduces Mamay, Ba-thane's sister. Mr. Ordway, a newspaper man, aids the missionary, Mr. Worth, in trying to stop Ba-thane, who has been Christianized, from getting the revenge he has planned.

Several intensive rehearsals have been held, which point to a very successful production next Wednesday evening in Bomberger. The cast of the play is as follows:

Mamay	Esther Lightner '34
Joan Worth	Margaret Paxson '35
Mrs. Worth	Ruth Haines '34
Gordon Worth	Clair Hubert '33
Ba-thane	Jerome Wenner '33
Mr. Ordway	George Givant '35
Mr. Fox	Allen Cooper '34

SUNDAY SCHOOL GROUPS HOLD INTERESTING DISCUSSIONS

For the past four weeks primitive and Greek art has been the subject of discussion in the Art in Religion Group of Trinity Reformed Sunday School.

The subject of primitive art was presented by Doctor E. B. White on Sunday mornings, the 16th and 23rd. of October. Doctor Donald G. Baker reviewed and illustrated the art of the Greek and Roman periods on October 30 and November 6.

Mrs. I. S. Sheeder, sponsor of the group, has arranged to have several other worthwhile speakers address the group on more recent phases of art as exemplified in religion.

The College department of the Sunday school includes two other groups which are holding very interesting discussions. Prof. F. I. Sheeder's class is discussing "prayer" in its various aspects while Rev. Lentz is leading his group in a study of "Jesus, Prophet of Galilee."

DREXEL PEP MEETING

"We may be in the dark now, but we won't be tomorrow!" That was the introduction and key-note of director "Jing" Johnson's speech to a gathering of students in the temporarily darkened Bomberger on Friday night.

"Jing" then introduced the guest speaker of the evening, ex-coach Ronald Kichline. "Kick" commented on the excellent ability of the members of the team and expressed his confidence in the squad for the Drexel game. "Wally" Tropp and Capt. Paul spoke a few words expressing the sentiments of the team. Loud, snappy cheering followed each speech. As usual the band greatly enlivened the meeting.

GIRLS' HOCKEY TEAM LOSES

For the first part of the second half Swarthmore continued the offensive playing keeping the ball in Ursinus' territory except for occasional dribbles up the field by the speedy wings. However Swarthmore could score only once while the latter part of this half was marked by Ursinus taking the offense. Eleanor Lyle, sophomore right wing, made several particularly pretty runs to take the ball within striking distance of the goal but the Ursinus offensive drive wasn't quite strong enough to master the situation.

All the members of the Ursinus backfield played beautiful hockey as can be seen by the low score to which they held the experienced Swarthmore line. Kippy White and Mary Rothenberger were outstanding as they broke up dribbles and passes with well-timed stick work. Eveline Omwake and Captain Edith Walters also played a very commendable defensive game.

Swarthmore	Pos.	Ursinus
Walton	right wing	Lyle
Jacquette	right inside	Blew

BEARS CLAW DREXEL DRAGONS IN HUMILIATING DEFEAT, 28-6

kicked. The ball travelled far into Ursinus territory so that Ursinus was forced to kick. Knapp, safetyman for Drexel, got his hands on the ball, but Johnson recovered.

Eachus passed to Lodge for a big gain and then tossed another to Will O'Donnell for the first score. Lodge converted the extra point.

Tropp Adds Another

In the second period Shuman ran back a punt to Drexel's 48 yard line. Wally Tropp fought his way through tackle for 33 yards to the 15 yard line. For the moment Drexel braced, and in two plays pushed Ursinus back six yards. On the third down Eachus threw a pass to Johnson who ran to the seven yard mark. Tropp came charging through the line on the first play for seven yards and a touchdown. Once again Lodge booted perfectly between the uprights.

Drexel's only score came in the second half. Lodge kicked off to Burns on the 12 yard line who raced to mid-field before Johnson finally tossed him out of bounds. Inspired by this run-back, Fleming went through a hole at tackle for 25 yards to the Bears' 26 yard line. Ripping through the center of the line, Drexel advanced to within seven yards of the Ursinus goal line. Here the Bears held for three downs, but Donnelly finally took it over for a score. Drexel's pass for the extra point was grounded.

Lodge Dashes 63 Yards

Three times in the remainder of the third period Ursinus threatened to score. Lodge took the next kickoff and ran 63 yards to Drexel's 32 yard line. A first down advanced the ball to the 20 yard line. Drexel took possession of the ball when an Ursinus pass was grounded over the goal line. Twice more Ursinus came within striking distance of Dragon's goal in this period but grounded passes over the goal line.

Lodge Crashes

The fourth period found Drexel with possession of the ball deep in her own territory. Knapp went back to punt out of danger, a bad pass from center eluded him, rolling back towards the goal line. Parunak recovered for Ursinus on the one yard line. Lodge crashed the center of the line for the yard and a touchdown. His third try for the extra point was good.

Parunak Intercepts and Scores

Late in the fourth period Drexel attempted to pass. With third down and ten to go Fleming dropped back and Parunak intercepted the pass sprinting 25 yards for the 4th score of the game. This time Shuman place-kicked the ball for the extra point. At this point a new team took the field for Ursinus, and for the remainder of the game play was centered at mid-field.

The summary:

Due to the complexity of the play there will be many extra parts all of which will be selected later.

The chairmen of the different committees are:

General chairman, Elmer Morris, '33; costumes, Margaret Deger, '33; properties, Mary Rothenberger, '33; programs and tickets, Harry Pote, '33; publicity, Elmer Morris, '33; stage director, Clair Hubert, '33; lighting effects, Jules Pearlstone, '35; prompters, Jeaneatte Baker and Edith Henderson, both of '33.

VESPERS

A literary and musical program was presented at Vespers, Sunday evening. Sara Pfahler '34 read "L'Envoi" and "Recessional" by Kipling, also Joyce Kilmer's "Thanksgiving." Jerome Wenner '33, played a cornet solo, "The Rosary," by Ethelbert Nevin.

FROSH TIE DREXEL, 6-6
